Chardonnay, Tête de Cuvée - the last of the musketeers
Aged for twelve months in French oak barrels, this distinguished southern Chardonnay has an enduring elegance that is equalled only by its wealth of aromas. The bouquet is initially intense, with overtones of ripened grapes and a hint of vanilla, intensifying into suggestions of ripe stone fruit flavours. The vino's maturity is sustained by a fresh palate, leading to a splendid finish. This special vintage has an unexpected depth and intensity that will surprise even the most seasoned palate.

Should be stored on its side, in a cool dark place. Will keep for a good ten years.
