

SALT LAKE
CITY WEEKLY

July 8th, 2015

Circulation: 248,008 Monthly Online

Outlet Twitter following (@CityWeekly): 26,600 Followers

Writer Twitter following (@Critic1): 1,327 Followers

July 08, 2015

Restaurants & Bars • Wine

Sips of Paris

Paris-worthy, wallet-friendly French wines for summer

By Ted Scheffler @critic1

In this week's City Weekly Restaurant Review column, I explore the marvelous French fare that Salt Lake City's The Paris Bistro & Zinc Bar has to offer. One of the things I didn't spend much time on is the restaurant's excellent wine list. There are wines for every budget available at The Paris, and the selection features many hidden or under-the-radar gems—for example, a bottle of Roger Sabon "Prestige" Chateauf-neuf-du-Pape 2006.

A few other terrific French wine values to track down—either at your wine store or in restaurants—include these recent favorites of mine: Domaine du Tariquet Côté ($15), a Chardonnay-Sauvignon Blanc blend; Guigal Côtes du Rhone Blanc 2013 ($17.75); Côté Mas Blanc Méditerranée 2014 ($13); and Languedoc's Arrogant Frog Sauvignon Blanc 2013 ($11).