Sauvignon Blanc

This winery was founded by a bear tamer. Yes, you read that correctly. The village of Ercé lies at the foot of the Pyrenees, and given its proximity to the natural habitat of mountain bears, the inhabitants were particularly skilled in the art of bear taming. This wine offers bright citrus, melon, grassy notes and a hint of passion fruit. Pair it with green salads or seafood - and if you want to give a nod to the wine's roots, try freshly caught salmon.
