

A Taste of Chic

New York, NY
Winter Issue 2007
Circulation: 32,000

Domaine du Tariquet conquers the U.S.

Robert Kacher Selections President Antoine Songy (left), Domaine du Tariquet Export Manager Ithier Bouchard, and Founder and Chairman Robert Kacher at the presentation.

Antoine Songy, President of Robert Kacher Selections, Bobby Kacher, founder and chairman, and Yves Grassa, one of the most innovative and revolutionary winemakers of France, are finally bringing Domaine du Tariquet to the U.S. The wines were savored at a unique event in New York where they paired with Gascon food were enjoyed by all. Grassa is launching five expressions from Domaine du Tariquet, all of which are available nationally through Robert Kacher founded by Bobby Kacher over 20 years ago and based in Washington, DC. According to Robert Parker, the Robert Kacher Selections name on a bottle of wine "has become as close to a guarantee of high quality as consumers are likely to find." Selections: Classic, Sauvignon, Chardonnay, Chardonnay Chenin and Côté Tariquet.

Domaine du Tariquet, Yves Grassa's award winning line of wines is imported solely by Robert Kacher Selections.

For more information:
www.robertkacherselections.com

Asian Duck Salad

Domaine du Tariquet Sauvignon is perfectly paired with D'Artagnan's Asian duck salad, including cucumber carpaccio, magret ribbons, Enoki mushroom, and pickled ginger.